UNITED STATES' PROPOSED FORFEITURE INSTRUCTION NO. 1

Members of the Jury:

Your verdict in this case does not complete your jury service, as it would in most cases, because there is another matter you must now consider and decide, namely, whether the defendant should forfeit certain property to the United States as a part of the penalty for the crime charged in Count 2 of the indictment.

In a portion of the indictment not previously discussed or disclosed to you, it is alleged that a certain firearm was involved in the offense as charged in Count 2; and, in view of your verdict finding the defendant guilty of that offense, you must also decide, under the law I will now explain to you, whether such firearm should be forfeited to the United States.

The term "forfeited" simply means for someone to be divested or deprived of the ownership of something as a part of the punishment allowed by the law for the commission of certain criminal offenses.

In deciding these forfeiture issues you should consider all of the evidence you have already heard during the trial plus the additional evidence, if any, that will be presented to you when I finish giving you these instructions.

The forfeiture allegation of the indictment - a copy of which will be provided to you for your consideration during your supplemental deliberations - describes in particular the firearm allegedly subject to forfeiture to the United States:

One Iver Johnson, .38 caliber revolver, serial number J08867.

In order to be entitled to the forfeiture of this firearm, the United States must have proved by a preponderance of the evidence that this firearm was involved in the offense as charged in Count 2 of the indictment.

A "preponderance of the evidence" simply means an amount of evidence which is enough to persuade you that a claim or contention is more likely true than not true. Proof beyond a reasonable doubt as used earlier in your deliberations is not required and you should put that standard out of your mind.

While deliberating concerning the issue of forfeiture you must not reexamine your previous determination regarding the defendant's guilt. However, all of the instructions previously given to you concerning your consideration of the evidence, the credibility of the witnesses, your duty to deliberate together, your duty to base your verdict solely on the evidence without prejudice, bias or sympathy, the necessity of a unanimous verdict, and the offense charged in Count 2 will continue to apply during these supplemental deliberations.

Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2 provides:

- (a) Notice To The Defendant. A court shall enter a judgment of forfeiture in a criminal proceeding unless the indictment or information contains a notice to the defendant that the government will seek the forfeiture of property as part of any sentence in accordance with the applicable statute.

Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(c) (1) (A) (ii), makes it a federal crime or offense for anyone to use, carry and brandish a firearm during and in relation to a drug trafficking offense.

The term "firearm" means any weapon which is designed to, or may readily be converted to, expel a projectile by the action of an explosive; and the term includes the frame or receiver of any such weapon, or any firearm muffler or firearm silencer.
